Reason _____

STONEKOR's sole obligation under its warranty is limited to repairing or replacing, at its option, any part or parts it deems defective during the applicable warranty period. Such replacement parts will be furnished to the original owner through STONEKOR or an authorized STONEKOR distributor, FOB the factory (Georgia). Such replacement parts, including applicable transportation charges, will be invoiced to the owner and must be paid in full in advance. The owner shall return defective parts to STONEKOR or an authorized STONEKOR service center as directed by STONEKOR. ONLY when the original part is returned within 14 days from an approved RGA and is found to be defective, the owner will be credited for the covered applicable warranty expenses.
